

Made to Crave

By Janice Straubel

When is enough, enough? Proverbs 30:15-16 says, The leech has two daughters. "Give! Give!" they cry. There are three things that are never satisfied, four that never say, "Enough!": the grave, the barren womb, land which is never satisfied with water, and fire, which never says "Enough!" These things are never full or finished. Life can feel empty and unsatisfying. More seems better than less. One of my husband's and my favorite books as a young married couple was "Living More with Less," by Doris Longacre. When our peers were buying more and more, we were learning to be content with less. Now we are at the age where giving away years of accumulated "stuff" brings us great joy.

Living with less meant less material goods, not less peace. With Thanksgiving approaching, I like to list the blessings in my life that DO satisfy. Psalm 103:5 says, God satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. My list includes good books, time with friends and family, a warm blanket on a cold night, a funny movie, finishing a project, walks and bike rides in nature, and a dog Roo who always provides unconditional love and licking. What does your list include?

Some things that DON'T satisfy me are potato chips, a ten minute nap, social media scrolling, and a day filled with worries for the future. God is our sufficiency (2 Corinthians 3:5) and is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things, at all times, you may abound in every good work. (2 Corinthians 9:8) God's grace is able to fill us with the strength to abound in every good work. The biggest way for me to turn around an unsatisfying day is to do good work for someone else's benefit.

Getting my mind off myself and on to blessing someone else can totally change my day.

Even in our discontent and selfishness, God's grace is sufficient, His power is made perfect in weakness. (2 Corinthians 12:9) I trust in the steadfast love of God forever and ever. (Psalm 52:8b) May our hearts be filled with praise and thanksgiving to our God who is always enough.

Elder's Corner

By Pastor Andy Straubel

Fall is now upon us, and it's a race toward Christmas. I love the fall and all it has to offer. Leaves are changing, nights are cool, and frost now appears on my car in the morning. I love it. With the fall comes a host of activities. By the time you are reading this the Harvest Party would have kicked off the festivities. No doubt the fire, the story, and the goodies have been happily received.

Daylight savings (i.e., "fall back") begins November 6, so mark your calendars. I think it is the last year for it.

On November 19 there will be an outside Work Day/Fall Clean Up. Any and all help will be appreciated. November 20 will be the last Sunday School until after the holidays, but a few "special" Sunday School classes will be offered. Listen for details.

On November 22, Windsor Chapel will be providing the Thanksgiving turkeys that will be distributed through the Harris Ministry. Hopefully next year we will provide the bags of "fixings" as in previous years.

Looking toward December, Windsor Chapel will be partnering with Pastor Azhar to do a Christmas outreach called Christmas Festival of the Light. The event will be both inside and outside consisting of vibrant Christmas music, a Christmas play, food, and a clear presentation of the Gospel. Please pray for all involved in these activities. Pray that the Lord would be glorified, and hearts would be prepared to hear what the Spirit of God would be saying to those who will attend.

Blessings to all.

Share the Bounty of God's Blessings!

Help Windsor Chapel partner with the Harris Ministry in Trenton in providing 75 Thanksgiving turkeys and bags of potatoes for families in need this year.

If you wish to share in this blessing through giving this Thanksgiving, donations to help cover the cost of the turkeys and potatoes may be added to your checks or online tithes for Windsor Chapel.

Inviting dialogue to encourage growth in and among us

November. Thanksgiving. A reminder that “every good thing given and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights....” (James 1:17a). As we count our blessings and thank the Lord for His goodness toward us, may we focus on the Giver as well as the gifts.

Save the Date!

A free Festival of Light will be presented at Windsor Chapel on Saturday, December 3, at 12 noon, by Trinity International Christian Church.

This enjoyable afternoon will include a play, live Christmas music, delicious food, hot coffee and chai, face painting, vendors and more! Be sure to mark your calendars and invite your friends.

Please join us on Saturday, November 19, from 9:00 am to noon, for some healthy exercise as we spruce up our grounds in preparation for the upcoming holidays. We'll be raking the leaves and transporting them to the curb. Bring rakes, tarps, gloves, etc., if you can. Coffee and donuts will be provided! The Boy Scouts will be assisting us.

Thank you in advance for your participation.

Don't Forget to Turn Back Your Clock!

Remember that Daylight Saving Time ends this Sunday, November 6, at 2:00 am. Computers, smart TVs and cell phones will automatically update, but be sure to set any other clocks back by one hour on Saturday night before you sleep. When you're resetting your watches and clocks (don't forget the one in your car), remember to replace the batteries in all your smoke and carbon-monoxide alarms if you haven't replaced them within the past year.
